Who we are

Who is providing this notice?

Green Tree

What we do

How does Green Tree protect my information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings. Our security practices include limiting access to this information to those employees and business associates with appropriate authority and for intended business purposes only.

How does Green Tree collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- apply for a loan or give us your income information
- provide employment information
- apply for insurance or file an insurance claim

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates or other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes--information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for non-affiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing. See below for more on your rights under state law.

What happens when I limit sharing for an account I hold jointly with someone else?

Your choices will apply to everyone on your account.
